Capital Credit Union Announces Business Services Representative Zach Mahin

BISMARCK, ND – Capital Credit Union today announced the hiring of Zach Mahin as business services representative at their Veterans Blvd. Branch, located at 3216 Veterans Blvd. in Fargo.

As a business services representative, Mahin will be responsible for delivering business products and services to existing and prospective credit union members in our Fargo market. He will also look for opportunities to provide additional products and services to business members.

"I expanded my strong interest in the financial services industry during my time at NDSU through my involvement in numerous clubs and activities including the NDSU Business Connections Mentorship Program and RMA Credit Analysis Competition," says Mahin. "I can already tell my passion for the industry and helping people will thrive at Capital Credit Union due to the culture of growth and support they have cultivated."

Originally from Beulah, ND, Mahin recently graduated from North Dakota State University in Fargo, ND, with a bachelor's degree in finance and minors in banking and entrepreneurship. He has three years of experience in financial services, being previously employed at VISIONBank and completing an internship at Red River Financial.

ABOUT CAPITAL CREDIT UNION
